

Christian values come from the teachings of Jesus Christ. They include love, honesty, respect, trust, hope and forgiveness...

Many of the world religions have similar values, shared by their leaders and/or religious texts.

The British government promotes British Values.

QUESTIONS: Are all of these values different? Does everyone have the same values? Which values are important to you? What do you do if you do not share someone's values?

